DIRECTOR’S MESSAGE

Greetings!
The Center for Professional Development team is thinking about YOU!

We take seriously the responsibility we have to help you be the best you can be at what you do. We are constantly looking for ways to be more responsive to your personal development by delivering relevant and practical learning experiences that “stick.”

To help you make your world a great place to live, work, and do business, we provide:

Convenience
The Meridian Center – 2950 E. Magic View Drive, is a convenient, creative, and fun learning space. When you arrive at the Center you will find plenty of free parking. The Center hosts five learning spaces for classes of varying sizes. With powerful Wi-Fi and comfortable breakout rooms, you will be able to stay in touch with the office and still be fully immersed in the learning experience.

Flexibility
We offer professional development when, where, and how you need it. Just check out our offerings and the many choices you have to customize a learning plan that fits your schedule and your needs.

Learning that “Sticks”
Our courses are designed to immerse you in the learning experience. Sessions are hands on, practical, fast-paced and relevant to your needs. Facilitators who are leaders in their respective fields use experiential learning methods to help you integrate new thinking and behaviors into your life. Even the curriculum is designed to be used long after the course has ended.

Learning that Counts
We know that you have made a significant investment in your learning experience and we believe you should have something to show for it. Now you can receive evidence of the 21st century skills you’ve gained through our digital “badges.” Digital badges show employers the exact competencies you have demonstrated. Badges can be linked in résumés, emails, and LinkedIn profiles via Mozilla Backpack. Most importantly your new skills are validated by Boise State Center for Professional Development. Badges are currently being offered as a part of the Leadership Development Program and will be expanding to other programs soon.

The CPD team looks forward to helping YOU succeed. See you in class soon!

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT PARTNERSHIPS

The Center exists to help make your world a better place to live, work, and do business.

One way we accomplish this is through building a partnership with your organization. We get to know your company, vision, mission, culture, and how to help you move it forward.

Customized solutions can address nearly every business concern, from leadership to executive coaching and development. Topics include, but are not limited to:
- Leadership development
- Project management
- Teams
- Executive coaching
- Any and all of your professional development needs

We want your team to be able to integrate learning that “sticks” and can immediately be applied to the unique challenges and opportunities in your organization.

We offer a no-cost gap analysis to help identify and prioritize your organization’s needs.

For a free, preliminary needs assessment, contact Adam Cuneo, Corporate Partnership Manager, Center for Professional Development, (208) 426-5438.

Our K-12 Professional Development Program works with Idaho school districts and organizations to offer outstanding opportunities for educators to engage and collaborate, while earning credit for their participation.

Boise State University’s K-12 Teacher Professional Development program’s goal is to improve student learning through quality professional development. We want to see the bar raised for professional development and are working hard to achieve that goal by teaming up with districts, educational organizations, and above all else, Idaho’s teachers.

Ensuring quality means a rigorous review process for all credits awarded. We strive to guarantee that participation in professional development, from registration to the request of a free transcript, is as simple and streamlined as possible. Idaho’s teachers’ focus should be on enhancing their practice and assisting students, not on tedious administrative processes. Our staff recognizes that, and is here to assist our teachers with any questions that they may have as they earn credits. We always aim to make our processes as simple as possible because we realize that everyone’s time is valuable!

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW:
- Graduate, non-degree seeking credits are offered at a standard rate of $60
- In-person, phone, and email support from 7:30 a.m.-6 p.m., Monday through Thursday and 8 a.m.-5 p.m. Friday
- Receive assistance from our coordinator in setting up and promoting courses
- Free transcript for professional development participants

Passionate about developing leaders, being director for the Center for Professionals Development is a natural fit for Paul Bentley. With over 30 years of experience, he coaches, mentors, and teaches classes that help people become the best they can be. When he is not working you will find him hunting, hiking, or playing music with family and friends.

Promoting positive change through professional development opportunities, and listening to Christmas carols year round.
Lori Nate loves education at all levels, from kindergarteners to the professional community! She manages online marketing, brochures, catalogs, and the website while also coordinating open-enrollment classes. In addition, she is an avid sports fan who travels all over the country watching her daughter athletes compete.

Keeping everyone on track, while squeezing in as much tennis as possible.
Chris Young has an uncanny ability to remember minute details about various programs and people, and decorate the office on a budget. Warm and welcoming, you will meet Chris when you walk into the office, unless you see her and her husband riding bikes, playing tennis, or catching a Boise State football game.

The unofficial “Director of Calm,” and model of cute shoes.
When others panic, Carol Nickel knows where there is a will, there is a way. She makes the impossible possible, by persistence and follow through. Approachable and fun, Carol is also in the front office available for answering questions, or drinking coffee. She also enjoys music, so don’t be surprised if you run into her at a concert.

If you google the words “people person”, Adam Cuneo will show up. Adam Cuneo enjoys helping a myriad of organizations with their development needs and brings close to 18 years of client-facing experience. When he is not helping others make their world a great place to live, work, and do business, you can find him with his family – skiing, mountain bike riding, hiking, or enjoying the fathomless pit of Netflix.

Committed to developing teams and leaders while enjoying the occasional hockey game.
Jeremy Graves is passionate about the role of different generations in successful Team building. Jeremy brings almost 20 years of leadership and experience into the classroom. His hands-on style not only makes learning stick, but is fun too! When he is not developing leaders, he can be found on the ice; either playing or watching his favorite sport...hockey
